Eight goals in two matches at home, top of the table and now a clash against the new boys Northern Spirit. Yes indeed, this has been a tremendous start for Carlton and if all goes well today we will have a perfect home record and retain top of the table status.

And of the eight goals that have been scored so far, all have been of great quality - be it team play in the build-up, opportunist strikes, great exhibitions of skill or just sheer persistence.

And more importantly the scoring responsibilities have been shared by five different players, adding to the entertainment for the fans as we witness different varieties of celebration!

Today we welcome Northern Spirit to Optus Oval for the very first time. The Spirit bring a star-studded team featuring Soccerroo greats Graham Arnold and Robbie Slater plus many other fine talents.

Disregard the defeats of the past two weeks, the Spirit will still be a very tough opponent today and Carlton will do well to take all three points.

Our Academy kicked off in fine form last

Sunday and today Jeff Olver's side takes on the Melbourne Knights in what should be a close match.

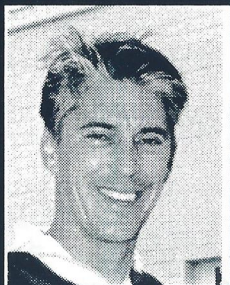

And on November 4 the Carlton Colts will also commence their season in the VSF Summer Youth League - we wish coach John Di Quattro and his side all the best for the coming season.

So we hope you enjoy today's entertainment and don't forget our next home match against Canberra Cosmos in Round 6.

The Coach

It is always pleasing to win at home and ultimately last week's result was a good one for us.

Although we did score four goals we missed several other opportunities which in a closer match may prove crucial to the end result. A defensive error was a gift to Adelaide City's only goal and otherwise the defence has played very well, as has the team as a whole.

It was pleasing to see our new strikers Joey and Alex get on the scoreboard which will help their confidence, something which is crucial to all players but none more so than strikers.

Northern Spirit will be a testing opponent for us today and I look forward to another win to continue our great start.

Eddie Krncevic

Profile of today's opponents: Northern Spirit

Years in NSL: 98-99

Home: North Sydney Oval

Honours: nil

Finalists: nil

Player to watch: Robert Enes, Robbie Slater, Kresimir Marusic

Last week: 0-2 loss away to Perth Glory

Northern Spirit enter the competition this season with a large squad on a fully professional set-up, second to Carlton in Australian soccer. Following two defeats the pressure will be on for Graham Arnold's side to produce a positive result. One worrying aspect for the Spirit is the fact that three players have been sent-off in two matches, creating unnecessary holes in a squad which also has several injury worries.

The Captain

Another good win last Sunday against quality opposition in the form of Adelaide City was a great boost to the side.

More importantly, it showed that we will not rely on one or two players to score for us this season - rather, we are all capable of putting the ball in the net, with Marcus coming close twice as did Marco and Andy Vlahos.

Of course today Graham Arnold's Spirit side will be pumped to get their first points for the season and will be looking to do so against us especially as they are the new side as we were last season.

It will be a great game full of soccer talent and I hope you enjoy another Carlton win but more importantly a entertaining example of Australian soccer at its best.

Academy start with a big win

The Carlton Academy got off to a flying start last Sunday with a big 8-0 win over the visiting Albury Wodonga side. It took a while for the Academy to find the back of the net, with several clear chances squandered in the first half much to the frustration of coach Jeff Olver. However the floodgates opened in the second half with several impressive goals including an out-standing long-range effort from captain Ivica Klarica.
